Manual 62 Automotive Lubricants and Testing

Table of Contents

Introduction

Part 1: Automotive Tribology and Lubrication Fundamentals

- Fundamental Principles of Contact and Lubrication—Q.J.J. Wang, H.S. Cheng
- Automotive Lubricants—D. Mackney, N. Clague, G. Brown, G. Fish, J. Durham
- Lubricant Properties and Characterization—K.O. Henderson, C.J. May
- Controlling Lubricant Degradation through Performance Specification—M.F. Fox
- Elastohydrodynamic Lubrication Film Tests and Tribological Bench Tests—Q. Wang, S.C. Tung, Y. Liu, Y. Zhang, D. Zhu
- Automotive Engine Hardware and Lubrication Requirements—E.P. Becker, S.C. Tung

Part 2: Automotive Lubricant Testing, Lubricant Performance, and Current Lubricant Specifications

- Gasoline Engine and Diesel Engine Powertrain Systems—P. Silva
- Automotive Bearing Systems—Journal Bearings—O. Mian
- The Drivetrain System—D. Simner
- Gear Oil Screen Testing with FZG Back-to-Back Rig—K. Michaelis, B.M. O’Connor
- Problems and Opportunities Regarding the Lubrication of Modern Automotive Engines—E. S. Yamaguchi, G. A. Tanaka, K. Matsumoto
- Current and Future Specification of Lubricant Performance—M. F. Fox
- Automatic Transmission Lubricants—R.J. Vickerman, C. Tipton
- Other Automotive Specialized Lubricant Testing Including Manual Transmission, Rear Axle, and Gear Box Lubricant Testing and Specification—D. Simner
- Design for Reduced Wear—R. Lewis, T. Slatter
Nonpetroleum-Based, No/Low-Sulphur, Ash, and Phosphorous, and Bio-No-Toxicity Engine Oil Development and Testing—M. Woydt

Part 3: Specialized Automotive Lubricant Testing and Future Automotive Applications

Current and Future Advances in Materials Development for Tribological Applications—B. Rivolta, L. Canale

Surface Analysis and Tribocornermity of Automotive Engine Components—A. Morina, H. Zhao

Tribology and Fine Automotive Mechanical Systems—W.F. Stehr

Analysis of In-Service Automotive Engine Oils—J.C. Fitch

Diesel Fuel Lubrication and Testing—J. Qu

Filters and Filtration Testing of Automotive Fuels and Lubricants—G. Bessee, E.C.-Heinrich

Dynamic Friction Characterization and Modeling of Tripod Constant Velocity Joints—C.-H. Lee, A.A. Polycarpou

Biobased Automotive Lubricants—L.A. Honary
