

In Appreciation

The high quality of the papers that appear in this publication is a tribute not only to the obvious efforts of the authors represented but to the unheralded, though essential, efforts of their reviewers. It is to the reviewers' dedication to upholding the high standards of their profession that this note pays tribute. On behalf of the Society and the authors as well, we acknowledge with appreciation their important contribution to the success of this journal.

Errata

Blachère, J. R. and Young, J. E., "Freezing and Thawing Tests and Theories of Frost Damage," Vol. 3, No. 4, July 1975, pp. 273-277. On p. 275, in Fig. 5, Regions I and II were inadvertently transposed in the figure and should appear with Region II at the top of the figure. On p. 276, under the section on Pore Size and Pore Size Distribution (2nd column, 10th line), the sentence should read "Region II was completed at relatively high temperatures" rather than "low temperatures."
