

Announcements

The Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Chicago, 18–21 Feb. 1975. Further information concerning registration for the meeting and reservations may be obtained by writing to the American Academy of Forensic Sciences, 11400 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Md. 20852.

The Pittsburgh Institute of Legal Medicine, in conjunction with the First Annual Meeting of the Israel Society for Medicine and Law, will sponsor an International Medical-Legal Seminar in Israel (Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, and Lake Tiberias/Galilee region) from 19–29 Oct. 1974. In addition to visits to various medical, legal, and governmental institutions in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, subjects to be discussed include the medical and legal ramifications of human experimentation, euthanasia, organ transplants and determination of death, mental disability and the law, and medical malpractice.

Fees are $850.00 for registrant (add $50.00 for participants departing from and returning to Pittsburgh), $775.00 for spouse, and $90.00 for single supplement charge. The fees include tuition fee and registration, round-trip air fare from New York City, hotels, four days of sightseeing by private motor coach with English-speaking guides, full Israeli breakfast throughout, lunches and dinners during the two-day Galilee trip, and baggage handling and transfers. For registration forms and additional information, contact Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D., Director, Pittsburgh Institute of Legal Medicine, 1417 Frick Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. 15219 (412 281-9090).

The 1975 National Symposium on Forensic Sciences will be held from 3–7 February in Perth, Western Australia. The venue is at the White Sands Motor Hotel, Scarborough, where excellent accommodation will be provided at a very reasonable cost. Papers and discussions in the various fields of forensic science, as well as a social program, are planned. Additional information may be obtained from: V. J. McLinden, Australian Forensic Science Society, Government Chemical Laboratories, 30 Plain St., East Perth, Western Australia 6000.