

What Student Members are Saying...

“At last year’s ASTM meeting I realized how much knowledge and experience lies behind every single word of each standard. Since then, I’ve followed every event of ASTM and try to be part of this huge effort of ‘helping our world work better.’”

-Mohammad Mahtabi, Mississippi State University

“Through ASTM International, I have built positive personal and professional relationships with many technical experts in my field.”

-Joel Kulesza, University of Michigan
